

Shinetsu Full Trail

27 Sep - 7 Oct 2020

Trek the Shinetsu Trail in early Autumn Colours
max: 10 travellers

Riki's Tours Japan is excited to share the Shinetsu Trail with you. We think it's Japan's best multi-day walk. It's an 80km trek in the central alpine region of Japan. It follows the ridge along the Sekida Mountain Range between Nagano and Niigata prefectures. It's a pristine woodland trail of beech, maple, birch, larch and cedar that's soft underfoot and gentle on your feet. You walk at an elevation of approximately 1000m and it's suitable for keen walkers.

The trail is divided into six sections, and takes six days to complete, averaging approximately 13km each day in 5 to 6 hours. We have devised this 11 day trekking tour that includes two nights in Tokyo to start plus one rest day during the trek. All food is provided on the trail and you will stay in delightful accommodation with onsen baths (hot spring) to soothe the joints and homey meals.
